DR. BUCKLEY LECTURES ON ALASKA-THE MUSI-CAL PROGRAMME-TENNIS-AN EDU

Chautanqua, N. Y., Aug. 5.—Yesterday's rain fresh-ened things considerably. To-day is bright again and many have come through the gates. The Buckley lecture this morning drew a large audience. The attendance reached the highest point so far this season at the grand concert this afternoon. The day began as usual with the matin call "Sembly Herald." Everybody was stirring early. At 9 o'clock the hall blied with the Women's Club. Mrs. Isabelia M. Alden, "Pansy," read a bright satire from her own pen on "Fairs, Festivals and Follies." The story cuts good-humoredly at the bazaar methods of raising funds employed by many modern churches. Its sensible ideas found supporters in most of the audience, al-though a rustle of disagreement was visible in some of the new Amphitheatre. Perhaps 8,000 people were present. Dr. Palmer's choir of 300 voices, the orchestra, Messrs, Bernhard, Listemann, I. Flagler and William H. Sherwood, the Misses by Ward Murray and Cariotta Nicolal and the The Schuberts were recalled with great enthusiasm. The chorus already shows Dr. Palmer's skilful hand.

Dr. Buckley, of "The New-York Christian Advoe," talked with his usual incisiveness this morning on "My Alaskan Trip." Dr. Buckley appears here with increasing popularity. limate of the Alaskan coast is extremely variable. The mountain scenery is grand, but so unrelieved as one eventually. "The idea of vastness," "more than anything else was what I back with me." Agriculture was not, nor brought back with me." would ever be, of great importance. William H.

Above the hall the tennis tournament is in progress. To-day's games narrowed the singles and doubles so that a game in each alone remains to be played. the Robeson brothers, of Elmira, meet the Brooks brothers. In singles it remains for G. Robeson to meet McCandless. Robeson held the championship of Elmira for several years. McCandless is from Yele University. The sets played this afternoon between Mitchell and McCandless were hotly contested, and among the best ever played on the grounds.

A novel educational experiment was presented this noon by Dr. P. W. Search, the Superintendent ablic Instruction of Pueblo, Col. Dr. Search, in school of 60 teachers and 2,000 pupils, inaugurated system of a peculiar nature. Physical education a system of a peculiar nature. Physical education and the mechanical arts have great prominence. The peculiarity of the experiment, however, consists in the attempt to break away from the cast-iron graded system. "To provide pre-eminently for the individual as opposed to the mass" is the aim, as stated in Dr. Search's cwn words. Flexibility is aimed at above everything. No regular lessons are given out. Study hours are held during which the pupil parsues a special study. He pursues it by himself, guided by the teacher.

THE NATIONAL TEMPERANCE CAMP MEETING. Right Worthy Grand Templar of the order of Good Templars, made an address upon the effect of alcohol on the body. The afternoon was devoted to a children's temperance service. Addresses were made by Dr. W. C. Steele, Mrs. H. S. Ellis, Miss L. made by Dr. W. C. Steele, Mrs. H. S. Ellis, Miss L. Penny, Edward Carswell and Rollo Kirk Bryan, the "chalk talker." This evening the largest audience of the season gathered to hear an address by Colonel George W. Bain. To-morrow will be Ocean Grove's anniversary Sunday. The Rev. Dr. J. E. Price, of New-York, will preach the sermon.

ACCUSED OF BEING A "COMMON SCOLD."

HELD FOR DEFRAUDING HIS CREDITORS.

Emil Abeles, thirty-one years old, of No. 446 East One-hundred-and-sixteenth-st., was arraigned in the Tombs Police Court yesterday charged with fraudulently removing property with intent to defraud creditors. Otto Wagner, furrier, of No. 40 Prince st., was the complainant. On June 27, Abgles, who is a retail furrier, went to Wagner's store and got furs worth 2001, representing that he was perfectly solvent.
On July 15, he made an assignment, giving no valid excuse to his creditors, when his assets were announced as $1,000 and his liabilities as $40,000.

while he way in the employ of Abeles he had taken quantities of furs and bugs to a pawhshop in the Howery, and to the shop of Abeles's father-in-law, Michaels, at No. 52 South Fifth-ave. Justice Meade held the defendant for examination August 16. Bernard Seigel, of No. 118 Eldridge-st., said that

WHITE PLAINS.

The cornerstone of the new Hall of Records, or addition to the Westchester County Court House, was laid yesterday afternoon at White Plains with Masonic ceremonies by Frederick A. Burnham, Grand Master of Masons of the State of New-York, assisted by a number of associate officers. Members of visiting lodges were present in considerable numbers. The Grand Master made an appropriate address. Among the articles deposited were a copy of the constitution and statutes of the Grand Ledge memorating the capture of Major Andre, the freedom of the Grand Lodge from debt, a medal-Tappan, copies of the county newspapers, portraits of county officials and representative men, history ments. The site of the building is in Grand-st., west of the Courthouse. The style of architecture is to be Romanesque. The building will have two stories and basement, and will be 6575 feet. Heavy blocks of Kensico granite will compose its outer walls, the trimming stone being white New-Hampshire granite and the interior trimming of oak. The cellings will be sixteen feet high. The flooring will be constructed of steel beams, filled in with terra-cotta arches laid with tile. The building will be heated by steam and ventilated through large flues, and when complete will be considered fire-proof. For the storage of papers a fireproof vault will be built in the basement. The County Register and his staff will occupy the first floor, and the second floor will be given over to the County Clerk and his assistants. Both officials will have private offices also. The building will be completed next spring. ments. The site of the building is in Grand-st. next spring.

The mysterious jewel robbery at the home of Mrs. Mary A. Mann, of No. 265 Lexington-ave., Passale, on June 8, has been cleared up by the arrest of John Lytel for the theft of a $50 diamond. Lytel, at the time of the robbery, was the coachman of Mrs. Nellie Grant Sartoris, the daughter of Mrs. the Mann family. There is reason to believe that ting the robbery on June 8. The inmates of Mrs. Mann's house were chloroformed and the bedrooms to the amount of $500. Lytel left the service coin to the amount of $900. Lytel left the service of Mrs. Mann shortly after the robbery, and a few weeks later departed from the town. It was then discovered that he had pawned a diamond which Mrs. Mann's daughter had lost in her room. A detective was put on Lytel's track and he was found at Salem. N. Y. He was arrested there on Friday and brought to the county fall on extradition papers. He refuses to speak about the robbery of June 8, but the police say they can obtain sufficient evidence to hold him for this crime.

GARFIELD A cloud of dense black smoke hung over Northern New-Jersey all day yesterday, and thousands of travellers on Hudson River ferryboats wondered where the fire was. A Tribune reporter followed the smoke through woods and brush, and found its origin at the Standard Oil Company's station, of Garfield, N. J. A large quantity of oil which was unsalable and useless had been let loose into a dense mass of green bushes and small trees and set on fire. The flames, though active, did not leap high, but for a radius of fifty miles the inky column could be seen.
